

Visit to the Swiss Youth Village Kiriath Yearim

On January 9, Swiss Ambassador Jean-Daniel Ruch visited the Swiss Youth Village Kiriath Yearim. Since 1951, Kiriath Yearim has worked ceaselessly to support socially disadvantaged children and youngsters and to provide them with education. The Swiss Ambassador was able to visit the village for a festive occasion: On that day the opening ceremony for the recently expanded promenade of the village was held. During his time at the youth village, Ambassador Jean-Daniel Ruch was able to gain detailed insight into the daily work of Kiriath Yearim. In addition, he got to engage with the children and youth themselves and to hear from their experience and appreciation. The visit was complemented by a tour through the village and a joint lunch.
